Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Fix, tourists who have been occupying a beach cottage for several weeks, were summoned by a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mr. Fix' father and left yesterday afternoon on their return to Indiana.

Monday's arrivals at the Seaside Inn were: J. S. Montgomery, wife and two sons, and brother, H. P. Montgomery and wife, of Kentucky.

E. Rector has accepted a position with the Bunch grocery for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Austin have rooms at the Bishop house on Seabreeze avenue, meantime, the foundation work on their home on the corner of Palmetto and Seabreeze avenues is going forward.

Mr. and Mrs. Lablin and children, of Canton, Ohio, have taken the Beardsley cottage, Idlewild, for the season. G. H. Holland's boat, the Wide-Awake, which has been on the ways for the past three months, was launched Sunday, and will soon be in commission for the winter work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan and friend, Mr. Clary, prominent hotel people of Sanford, Maine, have taken the west apartment in the Esch cottage on the corner of Valley street and Seabreeze avenue.

Mrs. E. A. Freeman entertained her French and painting class at her home Saturday afternoon. Some new literary games were played, Miss Grace Burdick winning first prize but all present capturing some pretty memento of the very pleasant occasion. The conversation was carried on in French. Some stories were read, and dainty refreshments served. The young ladies enjoying the afternoon were: Misses Swartz, Clare and Jessie Tomlinson, Ethel Strothers and Grace Burdick. Miss Ina Alloway was the guest of the afternoon.

The bathers out on the beach the fishermen hanging over the pier and trolling back and forth, the automobiles and carriages passing and re-passing made the beach unusually gay yesterday afternoon. All Daytona comes over to try out our new roads, and having tried them out they come again and again. The three communities Daytona, Seabreeze and Daytona Beach have a cinch on the best that sea coast towns can afford—this is the verdict of the many tourists who find this an ideal winter resort.

Electric Current Cut Dido. Sunday night as people were gathering at the Baptist and Congregational churches the lights went out without a second's warning and there was hustling for a few of Uncle John D's sort. About the time temporary lights were supplied the trouble was located and the wicked oil was dispensed with.

GUS WANTS TO SEE COLOR OF THEIR COIN.

Thinks He Can Blow Escaping Gasoline Fumes In His Rivals' Faces.

Gus Grosjean, the dashing and daring chauffeur for the E. H. Hotchkiss 4-cylinder, 30-horse power Pope-Hartford gasoline car, evidently takes no stock in the talk that says they can move by him in a dash down the beach, or a dash anywhere else for that matter.

Gus has been trying out his big car alongside of others and is of opinion he has about the fastest in the bunch, and he is not only willing but rather keen for a try out of speed with machines of his class, and especially is he anxious to go against some who have made comparisons figuring him last in the finish.

He has driven his machine 59 miles an hour without special effort and without the most favorable conditions and he thinks that with a right lively competitor alongside he might make it even time and at least eliminate that odd second.

At any rate Gus is willing to back up his judgment, so if you think differently all that is necessary is for you to tell Gus so and show him the color of your coin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kling of Magnolia avenue leave tomorrow for a two weeks' trip to Cuba.

Miss Minnie Kelly has purchased block 21, bounded by Jessamine boulevard on the South and University on the North, Palmetto and Pinewood avenues East and West. It is Miss Kelly's plan, in the course of the next year, perhaps, to build a dining hall, culinary and laundry department in the center of the block, for community use. To surround this with a park, and build neat and artistic bungalows and cottages dotted here and there on the grounds, so that renters can have the convenience, if they so choose, of a common dining room, kitchen and laundry. The intention is to make everything as beautiful as artistic landscape gardening and flower culture can. Miss Kelly does not expect to accomplish all this in a year's time, but she does expect to lay the foundation and more for this ideal.

The town was all agog with the news, Sunday afternoon, that Calve, the great songstress, was at The Clarendon, and everybody thought it was fitted that she should be at our big hotel, which captures the largest prizes, where she would have all the comforts of modern life and at the same time enjoy the beauties of the place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fogg, who had the good fortune of a ten days' voyage with Madam Calve the past summer, called on her at The Clarendon and entertained her at luncheon, and in an auto drive gave her some idea of the natural charms and beauty of this place. Madam Calve was interested in all she saw and greatly enjoyed her drive. Later, in a personal interview with Manager C. F. Bargman, she made a tentative engagement to sing at the Wilman's Opera House March 5th, on her return from Havana and Nassau, the details of which will be arranged with her manager.

Major Russell lies dangerously ill at his home in North Seabreeze. He was taken ill some time during Sunday night but his condition was not discovered until Monday morning, by his sister, Mrs. Baker, who found him unconscious. Dr. Esch was called, but gave little hope of his recovery at a late hour last night.
